I. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation, and the amount in controversy is more than $75,000, is a diversity case. In a diversity case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

I am seeking damages in the amount of $250 million dollars because this is my second claim against the NYPD for civil rights violation & violating my fourth amendment and 14th Amendment constitutional rights. NYPD has caused me emotional distress, severe injuries, pain and suffering. I now suffer from PTSD After experiencing multiple attacks by the NYPD. The trauma from the PTSD causes me to suffer from emotional and physical reactions. It triggers me to become angry and aggressive when seeing police officers. I have difficulty recovering from the trauma, experiencing vicious attacks and false arrests from NYPD.

Respectfully:

Mr shamark Williams
